

Design: Björn Dahlström

ArkMu

Barstool. Metal frame with an upholstered polyurethan seat modul. Originally designed in 2003 for the scenography of the permanent exhibition of Swedish Architectural history at the ArkDes in Stockholm. The stool is designed by Architect Anna von Schewen in collaboration with Björn Dahlström. It has a steel frame and upholstery seat. Structure in black or white powder coating or chrome.

Standard colours.

